brought about regarding this aspect of electoral reforms?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI H. R. BHARDWAJ): Yes, Sir. (b) and (c) The Election Commission has proposed as part of its proposals for electoral reforms that to deal with the problem of money power, it is necessary to evolve a scheme under which the burden of all legitimate election expenses could be shifted to the state. The Commission has also observed that the whole subject merited an in-depth study. This proposal along with the other proposals for electoral reforms, are intended to be discussed with the political parties before arriving at a final decision.
